New Online Course: Creating VR Scenarios

Our team is excited to announce the release of a short online course developed under Work Package3

“Creating Interactive VR/360 Scenarios.”
This micro-course supports youth workers who want to design immersive learning activities using simple, accessible digital tools. The course includes:

- An instructional video guiding users through creating a 360° VR scene
- A manual
- Examples of effective educational hotspots, branching choices, and annotations
- Tips from practitioners on how to prepare engaging VR/360 content

The course builds practical capacity for digital youth work and prepares participants to use VR learning tools confidently in their organisations.

The course will remain available online and can be accessed through:
